What is CFMH?

The Crime Free Multi-Housing (CFMH) program is designed to reduce crime, drugs, illegal, and nuisance activity in rental communities. Developed in 1992, CFMH can be found throughout the U.S. and Canada.

CFMH is pro-manager, pro-resident, and anti-crime. CFMH is a three-phase program:

PHASE I: Management/Owner Training

PHASE II: Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED) survey

PHASE III: Resident Crime Watch Training

Once all three phases are completed, the property is fully certified. This allows use of the CFMH sign and use of the CFMH logo in advertising. Full certification must be renewed annually.

Who Should Attend?

CFMH is a must for anyone who is involved in rental housing, including: single family rental property owners, apartment managers, and all employees who are responsible for screening and approving new residents or who deal with resident retention or termination.

In addition, maintenance employees are also encouraged to attend, for a better understanding of their role in reporting suspicious activity and crime prevention.

Property owners and area managers also find the training valuable in understanding the CFMH programs and supporting changes needed for full CFMH certification.

The training and landlord guide provided by your local Police Department is intended to foster healthy and safe neighborhoods through landlord involvement to reduce drug dealing and other illegal activity in the community. The manual and training should not be regarded as legal advice or considered a replacement for the landlord's responsibility to be familiar with the law. In that regard, I release the Police Department and its employees from all liability and responsibility from my participation in this training program.
